FROM : SAC, MILWAUKEE (166-695) (P)

SUBJECT: [redacted]

FRANK BUCCIERI; [redacted] VICTIM
ITAR - EXTORTION

On 1/3/73, the Milwaukee Sentinel reported that during a trial in which [redacted] was being tried for receiving stolen property and grand theft (involving the theft of jewelry from Milwaukee hoodlum associate SALLY PAPIA and its subsequent recovery by hoodlums), [redacted] made allegations that BUCCIERI, a Chicago hoodlum, [redacted] convicted of beating a man involved in the PAPIA burglary, and [redacted] a BUCCIERI associate, threatened him in order to persuade him to testify falsely before a grand jury and at trial.

The matter was discussed with Chicago Strike Force Attorney [redacted] who advised that this matter may involve an ITAR - EXTORTION violation and requested a copy of the trial transcript.

On 3/6/73, the trial transcript was received; however, the case Agent was working the Wounded Knee Special during the month of March.

The transcript is being forwarded to the Chicago Strike Force and a report is being held in abeyance pending deliberation and opinion.

[redacted] was convicted and is serving a 60 day sentence.

Re Milwaukee letter to Bureau, 4-30-73.

Referenced letter advised that [redacted] [redacted] while being tried by Milwaukee County Authorities for receiving stolen property and grand theft made allegations that BUCCIERI threatened him in order to persuade him to testify falsely.

By communication, dated 5-16-73, Milwaukee furnished Strike Force Attorney [redacted] a copy of the transcript of [redacted] testimony to determine if a violation of ITAR- EXTORTION might exist.

Contact was maintained with [redacted] in this matter and on 8-22-73, [redacted] advised that based on his reading of said transcript, no violation existed and he requested no further investigation of this matter.
